

SUPPLEMENTARY READERS – Art and Craft

LOOKING AT ART series

Six books that use story, memoir, biography for an engrossing introduction to the world of art, artists, their sensibilities and the creative process.

MUKAND AND RIAZ (Picture books)

Set against the background of the partition of India and Pakistan, this real story of friendship becomes a visual means to look at shared histories, memories and crafts. The pictorial narrative that uses the art of women's appliqué work provides a textured visual experience.

DOTS AND LINES: A TEACHING RESOURCE FOR ART (Tulika Teacher Resource series)

By drawing attention to the dot, the circle, the line and shapes, this book nurtures an artistic temper and an understanding of art and aesthetics through exercises and activities.

