ZAKIR AND HIS TABLA: DHAA DHIN NAA story Sandhya Rao pictures Priya Kuriyan

The very first words Zakir hears from his famous father, Allarakha, are bols – rhythms played out on tablas! They dance in his head, on Amma’s cheeks, on pots and pans… From his childhood, to the highs of a performer who took the tabla places, this joyous story introduces children to a musical genius, whose busy fingers and flying curls make him… Zakir Hussain.

SRINIVASA RAMANUJAN: FRIEND OF NUMBERS story Priya Narayanan pictures Satwik Gade

From a toddler captivated by patterns to a young man matching the best minds in Cambridge… The story of the brilliant mathematician follows his singular fascination with numbers! Satwik Gade’s strong visuals break out of literal depiction to evoke the mind and world of a genius, to whom numbers “made patterns only he could see”.

WHAT MAKES ME ME story Poorna Agarwal pictures Maithili Joshi

Your family, the shape of your nose, what you love to eat, the words you use, what makes you happy or sad, the keepsakes you collect… Lots of little things come together to make you YOU, and me ME. This little picture book distils big ideas of evolution, biology, psychology and more, for young minds. Along with playful pictures, it conveys how each unique ME makes a diverse WE!

A SAREE FOR AMMI story Mamta Nainy pictures Sandhya Prabhat

Ammi weaves the most beautiful sarees, but never gets to wear any of them! Her two little daughters decide to do something about it – break their piggy bank! But is there enough in it to buy Ammi her very own saree? Engaging visual details in vivid shades complement the simple, elegant text for a touch and feel experience of a village in Kota, Rajasthan, its sarees and its people.

5 FANTASTIC FACTS ABOUT THE CONSTITUTION OF INDIA

Did you know that ours is the longest constitution in the world? That it has the voices of you, me and everybody? Our dazzlingly diverse country was given a very distinctive constitution – and here are just five features that tell us what is special and why. Based on a video by Swara Bhaskar, with illustrations by Phani Tetali, the book gives young readers a first fascinating look at what forms the framework of our country.

THE FANTASTIC FEW: 12 WOMEN SCIENTISTS by Tara Anand

Kadambini Ganguly, Janaki Ammal, Irawati Karve... From the late 19th to the early 20th century, women in India braved many hurdles to make small and big leaps in the sciences. With crisp character sketches that capture their contribution, and interesting snippets, the book offers an engagingly visual glimpse into the lives and work of 12 wonder women of Indian science.

SCIENTISTS: A to Z by John Reilly pictures Anna-Maria Jung

A is for Archimedes, B is for Bose, C is for Curie, and off we go...on an alphabetical journey from ancient past to the present. Integrating the rhythm of old-school rhymes and the simplicity of the alphabet book with fascinating biographical titbits, these lively verses feature 26 scientists who have changed our world irrevocably.
